PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

What's the Big Deal? This lightly used home on Hinalea Street. Built in 2001, this home boasts big interiors and was lived in for only a couple months each year. The 1,404 sq ft interior has 2 beds and 2 full baths (with most rooms slightly larger than usual). Home can convey furnished. Front and Back of home has 60 sq ft patios accessible thru glass sliding doors. Front door opens to an oversize living room, with neutral grey berber carpet that continues down hallway to both bedrooms. Kitchen is light and bright with lots of counter space and storage. U-shape kitchen makes everything in easy reach when cooking. Large laundry room is first door on left off hallway. The next door on the left is the front bedroom with ample closet space and a cool ceiling fan. Hall ends with large main bath with easy care finishes like a laminate topped vanity and vinyl flooring. Master bedroom is next with 2 windows, a ceiling fan and a closet. Master bath is a pass thru full bath between the dining area/living room and the bedroom. Door from 212 sq ft garage enters home thru great room. Home sits on a big 15,077 sq ft lot that already has some landscaping for privacy and beauty. Home is located in the desirable neighborhood of Hawaiian Beaches. People love this area because of the amenities: water, paved streets, electricity, cable, phone, home mail and newspaper delivery. Attention Investors: people like to rent here for the same reasons. It is a short drive to Pahoia with a variety of restaurants, a supermarket, health food store, banks, and a hardware store. Isaac Hale Beach is nearby where you can surf, fish and swim. Hot ponds, steam vents, and black sand Kehena Beach are nearby as well. Home is walking distance to Keonepoko school and Da Store, corner market. SEE VIRTUAL TOUR FOR MORE PICTURES Hwy 130, pass the pahoia sign, Left on Kahakai Blvd., go about 5 miles down, Left on Puni Mauka Loop, Left on Hinalea, home down on Left.
